

20__ PARENT CODE OF CONDUCT

I hereby agree to provide a positive support, care, and encouragement for my child participating in the CVYFL / CLOVIS REBELS Organization by supporting and following this code of conduct:

- I shall encourage good sportsmanship by demonstrating positive support for all players, coaches, and officials at every practice, game, or other youth sporting events.
I shall not contact any coaches after a game about player issues and shall respect a 48 hr "cooling off" period between the game and the first practice after.
I shall place the emotional and physical well being of my child ahead of any personal desire to win.
I shall insist that my child plays in a healthy and safe environment.
I shall emphasize the benefit of skill development and how practices will enhance my child's game performance.
I shall ask my child to treat other players, coaches, fans, and officials with respect.
I shall applaud good effort in victory or defeat, emphasize the positive points of the game, and never criticize players.
I shall remember that the game is for children, not adults.
I shall assist in my child's participation by volunteering my time for concessions, gate ticket sales, "chain gang", and other activities to support the success of this league and his team.
I shall support my child's team rules, coach's rules, and the rules of the Youth Football League.
I shall not gossip or spread rumors about players, coaches, or other parents.
I shall welcome visiting teams and treat them as I would like to be treated.
I shall never lose sight of the fact that I am a role model. I understand that children imitate their role models and by acting appropriately, I will be modeling what I expect of my child.
I will not post, publicly display, in any electronic means, any items that will negatively reflect on anyone participating in the league, the Board of Directors, and any member of the Clovis Rebels organization.

Parent Code of Conduct Consequences

Violation of the Parent Code of Conduct is detrimental to the team and may be brought forward to the Clovis Rebels Board by either the team's head coach, assistant coaches, or a parent on the same team. A meeting with the Clovis Rebels Board will occur as soon as possible.

The Clovis Rebels Board may set forth a penalty ranging from a verbal warning up to suspending a parent from all team functions for one week to the duration of the season. Continual abuse of conduct may result in permanent removal from the Clovis Rebels games and functions.

During the sanction, the parent will not be allowed in any facility during a youth football event, regardless if that parent has another child on a different team.

I understand and will support the CVYFL / Clovis Rebels Youth Football program and mission.
